CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS !!

We are looking for volunteers to help man the food booth or provide baked goods. Also, help is needed in the ring during classes and at the doors. We are also still looking for items for the Silent Auction. Please let one of the Directors or Officers know if you can help in any way.

***Attention Round Up Participants:*****

The Directors have instituted the following procedures regarding the Round Up:

Paperwork must be filled out and given to designated person 1 hour before start time of class. One team per entry form. For your convenience, entry forms will be available on the website in advance and at the scale-house and announcers booth during Round Up. Weighing will be at least 3 hours and not more than 4 hours before the first class of each day. 25 lb shoe allowance in 3000, 3200, 3400lb classes.

All entries must be in the ring 20 minutes before time of class. Door will close at that time and no further teams will be allowed in. NO EXCEPTIONS!

ALL Drivers and owners must be EDHA members to pull at Round Up. This includes Youth and Ladies teamsters. This is for insurance reasons. If your membership is not current, please see Michele Thayer before you register for your class.

Drug Testing- We will be testing each class.

Premiums for classes will be paid by check. Prize money for 1st through 15th place. No entry fees.

Stalls- please be courteous and clean your stalls before you leave at the end of the weekend.

Wristbands MUST BE VISIBLE. We will be checking closely this year. If you do not have your wristband on, you must purchase another one. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Golf carts and 4-Wheelers are permitted but please NO UNDERAGE drivers. Please drive SLOWLY!

Campers & horse trailers...if you plug into electricity, you will be charged the campers rate. Camping passes can be purchased at the gate or from Bob Allen. You must have a Campers Pass visible in order to plug into electricity. NO EXCEPTIONS! No dumping of waste water whatsoever.

Good luck to all participants. Have a great weekend.

EDHA thanks you in advance for your cooperation.
